Community Update

Term 3, Week 2

COVID-19 News

In line with advice from the Victorian Chief Health Officer, all school based staff will wear face coverings at school from Thursday 23rd July. Staff will have the option not to wear a face covering while teaching in the classroom.

Our students are not required to wear face coverings, however can if they wish.

Parents/carers will be required to wear face coverings whenever they leave the house, including for school drop off and pick up.

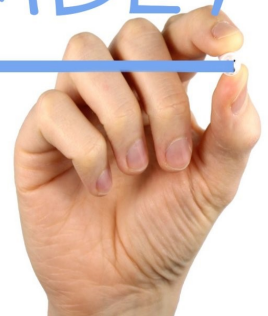

School Council News

Our Hume Valley School has a casual parent vacancy available. Please contact the school if you are interested. The position is available until February 2021. Your support would be welcomed.

School Representative Council

Next week our Principal, Diane Bassett, will present our 2020 SRC members with their badges during a special remote assembly. The SRC Member's families will be invited to view the assembly remotely—information will be send home soon.
