

Categories – Types of...

Hume Valley School Speech Language Pathology Department

WE ARE PRACTISING:

- Naming categories
- Talking about category function

HOW TO PLAY:

- Click on this link:
https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/1rjIGlzB67jOLOUYJxPLqr6UImIhh_Jk4q5c1DsNLnS0/edit?usp=sharing
- Click on 'present' in the top right corner of the page
- Press the space bar to go to the next page
- Ask your child the question, like "Runners and thongs are types of...?"
 - If your child needs help, you can point to each picture and ask them "What are they? What do we use them for?"
- Your child can answer by pointing or using their words
- Press the space bar to see the next question
- Repeat until the questions are finished

WHEN GOING THROUGH THE QUESTIONS USE SENTENCES LIKE THESE:

- "Apples and pineapples are types of...?"
- "What do we do with boots and runners?"
- "That's right, you wear a jacket and pants."
- "I love how you are trying so hard"
- "Cats and dogs are animals. Are they pets or wild animals?"
- "You think carrot and broccoli are types of vegetables. So do I."
