

Identifying Emotions

Hume Valley School Speech Language Pathology Department

WE ARE PRACTISING:

- Identifying emotions
- Answering 'who' questions

HOW TO PLAY:

- Print the next page.
- Tell your child, "we are going to practise talking about feelings".
- Read each question to your child.
- Allow them time to respond. They can point to the picture or use their words.
- Allow your child to circle the correct answer.

USE SENTENCES LIKE THESE:

- "Who is feeling happy?"
- "Is she feeling sad (point to the girl) or is he feeling sad (point to the boy)?"
- "Well done. He is feeling scared"
- "Good trying, but this man is feeling bored. Which man is feeling excited?"
- "Look. She is feeling disgusted"
- "This girl is feeling angry. Show me your angry face."

Identifying Emotions

Circle the correct answers.

Who is feeling happy?

Who is feeling sad?

Who is feeling scared?

Who is feeling excited?

Who is feeling disgusted?

Who is feeling angry?

